

DANGER IN FEDERAL CONTROL.

WARNING FROM HORNBLLOWER AT SOUTHERN SOCIETY DINNER.

Concentrating Power at Washington, He Says, Will Pave the Way for a Time of Corruption That Will Horrify the Nation—Dangers Found in Federalism.

The New York Southern Society had its twentieth annual dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria last night, and managed to preserve even in the discouraging atmosphere of a glittering hotel something of the atmosphere of the South. The songs were all of the South, and they were sung with tremendous enthusiasm. There were present 400 of the society and its guests.

President Marion J. Verdery proposed the health of the President of the United States. It was drunk standing and amid cheers. Then Mr. Verdery, bowing toward the gallery full of brightly gowned women, said:

"Turning from things of earth earthy, I ask you to look at this splendid constellation of Southern stars, brighter than any that shine in the Southern Cross. (Cheers and applause.) Enthroned where you are, ladies, rivaling the beauty of Galatia, I ask you to emulate her silence. Ladies and gentlemen, at this season I give you the toast of Tiny Tim: 'A merry Christmas to you all and God bless us every one.'"

William B. Hornblower, the guest of honor, spoke on "American Common Sense." He said:

"We are surprised every now and then by waves of emotionalism in this country, waves which threaten to sweep away our standards, but always American common sense beats back these waves and things work out all right. There was such a wave after the war, when an effort was made to reverse the pyramid of Southern society and prop up the monarchy by Northern bayonets, but common sense compelled the Government to assert itself."

The impeachment of Andrew Johnson was another such wave of emotionalism. If Johnson had been impeached this country would have been turned into a South America, parties refusing President whenever the President refused parties. There are three names—names of men not recognized perhaps as they should be—Senators Trumbull of Illinois, Fessenden of Maine and Grimes of Iowa. Those men stood fast by the Constitution in that day, and they deserve to rank with that other triumvirate of the nation's great—Hamilton, Madison and Jay."

Then there came waves of financial heresies which appeared for a time to endanger our whole financial fabric, but common sense swept away the issue and stood and stood us disgrace. Then came the Spanish-American war and another period of emotionalism, this time that of expansion. I am not going to talk about the Philippines. We've got them, and I guess we'll have to keep them. I feel like this on the Philippines. A client of mine came into my office the other day, looking solemn.

"What's the matter?" said I.

"My colored coachman has died and remembered me in his will," said he.

"Oh, that was nice of him," I said.

"Nice, hell," said my client. "He has made me testamentary guardian of his ten minor children."

Now we are in another wave of emotionalism. The people are shocked by recent revelations. The cry goes up: "Let us have Federal control of the railroads and the corporations!"

"Rights not expressly granted to the Federal Government are reserved to the States and the people thereof." (Applause.)

That is now a Democratic heresy, I suppose. I can't discuss the political and economic side of these matters, but here's a phase of the situation, an alarming one. It is largely the reason why people are shouting for Federal control. I mean the corruption of public officials. Gentlemen, is Federal control a panacea for corruption? Are Federal officials immune from corruption?

I don't wish to predict calamity, but I do say that if we go on concentrating power at Washington there will come a time of corruption that will horrify the whole country. (Applause.)

Let me say to you, gentlemen, that I am responsible for its own affairs. That is good Americanism and pretty good common sense, I take it. (Applause.)

Now there is another wave of pessimism which is rising at this moment. Extraneous assertions are being made about the conduct of our fellow men, particularly it is said by the directors of large business enterprises. A false idea seems to have arisen. Gentlemen, the great majority of the men who are at the head of corporations are not dishonest. Don't think our present business life is rotten to the core. It isn't. There is now but a temporary dismember, which will pass away. Whatever has happened in the past is happening now, will happen in the future. We are all sure that the great American people are sound at heart. The nation is bound to endure."

The dinner closed and cheered Mr. Hornblower. Following him was the Rev. Ernest M. Stiles, D.D., of St. Thomas's Church. "Principles" was his subject.

"Forty years ago," he said, "Robert E. Lee was offered the presidency of the Southern insurance company at a salary large for those days. He wrote that he hadn't the ability or the experience to command such a salary. He was told that his name was worth it. 'What influence I have with the Southern people is not for sale,' said Lee."

Job E. Hedges, Martin W. Littleton and Creswell MacLaughlin were the other speakers.

HEAVY RAIL IN ELECTION CASE.

Man Accused of Wrong Identification Locked Up in the Tombs.

James F. Waters, who, it is alleged, identified James McGuire as Henry W. Jennings at the polls of the Fortieth Election district of the Nineteenth Assembly in Brooklyn on election day and who was arrested in the office of the Attorney-General on Tuesday after being questioned, was arraigned before Magistrate Cornell in the Tombs police court yesterday. He was held in $3,000 bail for examination to-day.

Bartow S. Weeks offered the same bail that was accepted by Magistrate Cornell on Tuesday, but it was refused, and Waters went to the Tombs prison.

CABINET FIGHTS CONVICTION.

His Counsel Seeks a Certificate of Reasonable Doubt for Him.

Borough President Littleton yesterday secured from Supreme Court Justice Marwan in Brooklyn an order to show cause why a certificate of reasonable doubt should not be granted in the case of former Assemblyman Joseph J. Cahill, who was convicted last week of perjury in liberal registration and sentenced to two years imprisonment in Sing Sing. The order was served upon Deputy Attorney General Mason, who will argue against the granting of the certificate to-morrow morning.

Another Election Inspector Arrested.

F. J. Artus was arrested and arraigned before Judge Crane by the County Court in Brooklyn yesterday on an indictment charging him with permitting Max Cohen to register twice in the Forty-fifth Election district of the Twenty-first Assembly district. Artus was an election inspector. He pleaded not guilty and in default of $2,500 bail was committed to jail.

La Follette Loses His Grip on the Legislature.

MADISON, Wis., Dec. 13. The Assembly, hitherto always supportive of La Follette, took a slap at the Governor to-day by defeating both his bills for a change in the official election ballots.

OUT OF ARBITRATION BOARD.

Iron League Resigns Because Its Workmen Are Now on Open Shop Basis.

The Iron League and other organizations of employers in the Allied Iron Trades have resigned from the General Arbitration Board of the Building Trades Employers' Association and the union. Their resignation does not mean resignation from the association, but was tendered and accepted because the housemiths and other structural iron workers were ruled out of the board after the strike against Post & McCord started and because the open shop now exists in the trade.

William Nason of the Marble Cutters, former president of Diamond Building Workers' fighting organization, the Building Trades Alliance, has been made chairman of the General Arbitration Board, succeeding Otto M. Edlitz of the Mason Builders' Association. While Nason was president of the Building Trades Alliance there was a general lockout on account of strikes ordered by the Alliance in violation of the arbitration agreement. Nason then proposed a plan of settlement of the trouble, which fell through, and after the arrest of Wonsheimer the Building Trades Alliance disbanded.

Fifteen of the Post & McCord contracts, it was reported yesterday, are now manned. William H. McCord reported to the emergency committee of the employers' association last night that since the strike the new men at the American Can Company's building had put up three stories faster than numbers of the union had done in the last five years.

President Pritchett Quits Boston Tech.

BOSTON, Dec. 13.—Henry S. Pritchett, for five years president of the Institute of Technology, to-day sent in his resignation. Mr. Pritchett will go to New York as president of the Carnegie Foundation Fund, for pensioning of aged and needy professors.

President Pritchett's retirement, according to a report in circulation, is due to friction with the trustees over the proposed alliance between the institute and Harvard.

President Pritchett arrived in New York last night. F. A. Vanderlip, a trustee of the Carnegie fund, said there was no foundation for the report that Mr. Pritchett had resigned because of friction in the school. It was understood, he said, when Mr. Pritchett accepted the Carnegie position that he was to give up the work in the school.

25 HORSES BURNED TO DEATH.

One of Them Could Do Almost Everything—But Talk, Brooklyn Vet Says.

Twenty-five horses were suffocated or burned to death in the stable of George J. Goubaud, a veterinary surgeon, at 848, 14th and 5th Avenue, Brooklyn, early last evening. One of them was a valuable animal, "that could do everything but talk," Dr. Goubaud said.

The Reid Ice Cream Company had forty horses in the stable as well as twenty-five delivery wagons and trucks. Before the flames had gained much headway the wagons had been rolled out into the street, and seventeen of the horses rescued, but not without considerable difficulty. The three-story tenement at 852 was damaged by water and the tenants were driven into the street.

Three Children Drowned While Skating.

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., Dec. 13.—Early this evening, while ten young children were skating on the mill pond of Kellings & Miller the ice broke and the children went down. Three of them were drowned and one is still missing. Those drowned are Emma Kellings and Charles Otto, 12 and 13 years of age. Marie Brandenburg, 12 years of age, is missing. The body of the Yorkie girl has been recovered.

The Musically Accomplished BUSINESS WOMAN

THE business section of New York City holds thousands upon thousands of young business women, of artistic taste with the love of music, who have never had the time or opportunity to secure a musical education. As stenographers, bookkeepers, cashiers and saleswomen, they perform a very large and important part of the work of commerce.

But their busy days are only a means to the end. They are self-supporting, independent; yet a very important element of the city's social life. Their real life is composed of the evenings and other leisure hours that they spend in their own homes.

They recognize the enjoyable fascination of Music, to themselves and their personal friends; and perhaps at times envy the accomplishments of young women when they count more fortunate.

To all these thousands of young women the allurements of musical entertainment are now possible and easily procurable.

The AUTOPIANO Makes a Musician of its Possessor

It requires no musical knowledge whatsoever, in the performer. The business woman possessing it becomes the most charming and sought-for hostess. Her home takes on a new artistic attraction to all her friends. Life takes on new pleasures and hopes, from the new source of happiness, and the growing circle of friendship. And the Autopiano is very easy to buy.

$15 Cash, and $10 a Month is all that is required—with the necessary references as to your ability to meet the obligation—a very simple formality.

Do you know of any other pleasure, worth even half as much, that the small monthly expenditure will buy? And remember that you are all the time securing a very valuable piece of property, in addition to the daily enjoyment, which is worth all the cost.

Come and see and hear the AUTOPIANO, and realize how much the possession of it will mean to you.
